Dear Parents

RE: WPFA NEWS

Firstly, a big thank you to Helen Moore and the rest of the WPFA for all the hard work over the last few years. My name is Sarah Dando and I have now taken over the role as Chair and hope that we can continue and build on the work previously done. Following our meeting before half term, we have big plans already for the year ahead including a Christmas Fayre, monthly cake sales and obviously keeping the old favourites like school discos and bingo nights. Other ideas for fundraising would be very welcome, so please contact me through the Facebook page or email: birchallsarah@yahoo.co.uk.

The Christmas Fayre is being resurrected on Friday 1st December from 5.00 - 7.00 pm. The fayre will be packed full of games for children and grown-ups including pin the nose on Rudolph, knock over Santa, Santa roulette, dress the elf, a chocolate tombola (for the children) and a bottle tombola (for the grown-ups). There will also be things to make, face painting, and hopefully hot food, mince pies and mulled wine. We have invited Father Christmas and are hoping he can make it! Now for the serious bit, we have had some great ideas put forward and some offers of help and we are confident that we can make it a great evening but only with your help too.

We can only run all of the above if we have enough people to help prepare in advance, set up on the day, run the stalls and help tidy up after the event. We desperately need more parents to step forward. Volunteering for a stall doesn't mean that you'll be stuck there all evening, we're hoping to have enough parents/grandparents/aunts/uncles so you'll have plenty of time to enjoy the fayre yourself with your children. We would love to also get the children involved running the stalls with you. We are looking for a Photographer (amateur or professional) to take family photos on the night so please let me know if you or a friend or relative could and would take on this role?

Most of all, we need you and your children to come and enjoy the fayre with us and help kick off the Christmas festivities!

Thank you.

Sarah Dando
