

Homework: Adverbials of Manner Challenge

What is an Adverbial of Manner?

An adverbial of manner tells us how something happens. It describes the way an action is carried out.

Examples:

Crawling across the floor

With fierce determination

In silence

Peering through the gloom,

Your Task

Pick 4 of the simple sentences:

“Beowulf fought the monster.”

Rewrite it three different ways, adding an adverbial of manner each time.

Example:

Beowulf fought the monster

Jumping across the table, Beowulf fought the monster.

Beowulf fought the monster with fierce determination

Beowulf, with a tight grip on his trusted blade, fought the monster.

Simple sentences

Beowulf gripped his sword.

The monster crept through the hall.

The warriors waited at the door.

Beowulf spoke to his men.

The hall shook as the battle raged.

The creature fled into the night.

Beowulf raised his shield.

The Danes celebrated their victory.

Adverbial of manner

Roaming with deadly grace,	With a grin of pure malice,	Charging with unstoppable force
Panting softly,	Creeping with relentless patience,	Slithering in the sunlight
With a savage snarl,	With claws poised to strike,
Clutching his claws tightly,	Slashing wildly in fury,
Breathing in ragged bursts,	With breath hot and foul,
With eyes blazing like embers,	Stalking like a predator,
Dragging his twisted limbs	With a roar that shook the
slowly,	hall,
With hunger burning like fire,	Moving with monstrous
Snarling through gritted teeth,	strength,
With a blood-curdling howl,	With a glare that froze the
Lurking like a shadow,	blood,
With muscles coiled for attack,	Snapping his jaws hungrily,
Slipping silently through the	With a hiss of rage,
gloom,		